

Comments from John (Hertfordshire) on purchasing a set of Melanie Cambridge® Artist Oil Brushes

June 2017

You may recollect I bought a set of your brushes recently and said I would report back. I am no sort of expert on brushes and have tried many over the last 20 years but I honestly find the brushes in your set to be very suited to me and the way I work.

They have a very workmanlike feel and place oil paint beautifully. I get tremendous coverage from a full load on the larger two sizes while the middle sizes allow for good coverage and are delightfully accurate with placing. I didn't use the two rounds for a while as I didn't expect too much from them but I was quite wrong as they are most enjoyable to use. I find the range of sizes ideal without feeling the need for in-betweens.

All in all I have made a very good purchase. The trouble is that I'm sure that they will wear very well, lasting a long time so it may be quite a while until I come back for more.
